Dear Giuseppe,

It is our great pleasure to offer you admission to the Advanced Education Program in Periodontics, for the 2014 academic term. This 36-month program is fully accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation and the American Academy of Periodontology. Your program begins July 1, 2014.

Congratulations on your outstanding record of accomplishments! The New York University College of Dentistry prides itself on selecting only the most qualified candidates to pursue our rigorous post-graduate training programs. With a distinguished faculty, a rich history of excellence in education, discovery and patient care, and more than 10,000 alumni we welcome you to the College and look forward to sharing our mission with you: "to partner with students in achieving academic excellence, providing the best oral health care, and engaging in research, scholarship, and creative endeavors to improve the health of the highly diverse populations in New York City and around the world".

In order to accept this offer of acceptance into your residency program, please sign and return the enclosed acceptance offer to: the Office of Student Affairs and Admissions, 345 East 24th Street, NY, NY 10010-4086. Please include a non-refundable $2,500 tuition deposit, payable to NYU College of Dentistry, no later than, Monday, May 19, 2014; and be certain your $100 application fee has been paid. When submitting your deposit, please include a copy of your US social security card, if you have one, to avoid any delays with your Financial Aid process.

Your enrollment in the next academic year is contingent upon your successful completion of any current academic program you may be enrolled in, as well as meeting compliance and regulatory standards that might apply.

We look forward to your joining us at New York University!

Sincerely,

Andrea Schreiber, DMD
Associate Dean for Post Graduate Education
Clinical Professor and Vice Chair
